

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Department of Land Economy

Director

Cambridge Centre for Housing and Planning Research

£64,787 p.a. pro rata

The Department of Land Economy is seeking to appoint a Director of Research to lead the Cambridge Centre for Housing and Planning Research, following the retirement of the current Director, Peter Williams at the end of 2013.

Founded in 1990, the Cambridge Centre for Housing and Planning Research is one of the UK's leading research centres in its field, currently employing 10 full and part-time staff. Details of its activities can be found at www.cchpr.landecon.cam.ac.uk.

This is an opportunity to take forward the continued development of the Centre over the next decade. The new Director will be responsible for developing its contribution to policy formation and evaluation, its academic output and research income.

This Professorial level post will commence 1st January 2014, is for an initial period of two years and is part-time in the first instance. The detailed arrangements are however flexible, subject to the requirements of the centre and funding.

Further details can be downloaded from:

<http://www.cchpr.landecon.cam.ac.uk/recruitment.asp>.

Applicants should submit their CV and application form (available from <http://www.admin.cam.ac.uk/offices/hr/forms/chris6/chris6.doc>) to Mrs Laura Cave by 9am Monday 8th July 2013.

Interviews, to be held in Cambridge, are scheduled for Wednesday 24th July 2013.

Applications and queries regarding the application process should be emailed to Mrs Laura Cave lew24@cam.ac.uk.