

ENHR is hiring a Community Manager (part-time)

The European Network for Housing Research (ENHR) is looking for a motivated and creative Community Manager to help us strengthen our communication, increase engagement, and amplify the visibility of housing research across Europe and beyond.

 Position: Community Manager

 Location: Remote

 Time commitment: 1 day per week

 Start date: As soon as possible

 Includes travel to the ENHR Paris 2025 conference (2 days, expenses covered)

Salary: Negotiable (based on experience)

Main Goals

We want to improve how ENHR connects with its members and wider audiences. The Community Manager will work closely with the Coordination Committee to:

1. Foster more interaction with and between ENHR members
2. Promote collaboration among Working Group coordinators
3. Help us reach a larger audience for our events, seminars, and publications
4. Disseminate job opportunities to our community
5. Stay informed and share what's happening in housing research
6. Share news from sister organizations and relevant policy actors
7. Engage both current members and potential future members

Key Activities

We are looking for someone to take the lead in designing and delivering regular content, including:

- Creative social media posts and stories (LinkedIn, X/Twitter, Instagram, etc.)
- Periodic newsletters and mailings to members
- Interviews with prominent or emerging housing researchers and practitioners
- Promotion of books and recent publications
- Recording and sharing ENHR conference plenaries
- Reusing conference materials for ongoing posts and content
- Sharing relevant calls, news, and updates from housing policy and sister networks

Who we're looking for

- Excellent communication skills in English
- Familiarity with housing research and/or networks like ENHR
- Experience with social media, digital communication, and community engagement
- Ability to work independently and creatively
- Basic graphic or video editing skills are a plus
- Knowledge of the European research and housing policy landscape is an advantage

Why join us?

ENHR is a vibrant and diverse community of housing researchers across Europe and beyond. As our Community Manager, you'll be at the heart of the conversation, helping to shape the network's visibility, voice, and impact.

How to apply
